FCA Campus Digital Training Lesson Two: How do we start FCA Campus Ministry?

Watch Video 1: What is FCA Campus Ministry_MinTypes (1 minute). While watching the video, fill in the blanks. After watching the video, answer the question(s) below.

“Within the [FCA] Campus Ministry, there are four ministry types:

1. _____: regularly scheduled gatherings for the purpose of evangelism, discipleship, outreach, fellowship, using the platform of athletics. This is what most of your campuses meetings look like (Join; any athlete is invited, as well as non-athletes on some campuses).
2. _____: a Bible study within the team setting that encourages and challenges the team members to live and compete according to the Bible’s principles.
3. _____: a Bible study with Coaches that encourages and challenges Coaches to live and coach according to the Bible’s principles.
4. _____ (we now call Chaplains “Character Coaches”): a relationship-driven ministry that reaches a specific team, both the athletes and coaches, through team chapel meetings and spiritual and character development.

Here’s the “WIN” of FCA Ministry: when coaches and athletes pray, study, and discuss the Bible in small group setting (called a Huddle) and the life change that results from it.

Question 1: List the FCA Campus Ministries taking place on your campus this year. What other campus ministries have you had in the past?

This year:

Past years:

Question 2: Think back to your Lesson One Answers about the “WIN”. Read the above definition of our “WIN”. Knowing what you know about the “WIN”, which of the four ministry types do YOU think will be the most impactful in spreading the Gospel through FCA on your Campus? Why?

Watch Video 2: How Do I Get Started (3 minutes). While watching the video, fill in the blanks. After watching the video, answer the question(s) below.

“If you want to start an FCA ministry on your campus, the first thing you need to do is _____...It is an opportunity for you to acknowledge that the _____ needs to go before you...It’s _____ strength and power and not your own. It’s also an opportunity for your _____ to be set right.”
